

"Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp"

Coming Saturday

A list of patronesses who are sponsoring the presentation of "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" by the University of Chicago Settlement League Players at the Cullow theatre Saturday afternoon includes the following names: Mrs. K. K. Lillen, Mrs. Elmo Schutt, Mrs. E. A. Beerman, Mrs. H. P. Cagle, Mrs. Edgar Hettler, Mrs. Frank Hecht, Mrs. Henry Neal, Mrs. Leslie Hansen, Mrs. H. B. Ryan, Mrs. L. M. Hixon, Mrs. Arthur Jerrold, Mrs. Donald Bateman, Mrs. W. Lane Schulze, Mrs. Harold Costello, Mrs. Alfred Watt, Mrs. Robert Buckley, Mrs. Maurice Shurtliff, Mrs. H. C. Cheney, Mrs. Sumner Mead and Miss Faith Hardy. Mrs. Samuel Rowe is general chairman of the affair.

The script for the play was originally written for the Junior League of New York City.

Characters include Aladdin, his wonderful lamp, the camel, who sings, talks and dances, the magician and Scheherazade, the princess. Scheherazade will speak to the children in the audience between acts.

The play was written for children up to 14 years of age. Excellent costumes and scenery is included and Thelma Dahlberg, a graduate of the Goodman school of dramatics, is director of the production. The play was well-received, according to reports, when given at Mandel Hall on the University of Chicago campus two weeks ago.

Presentation of the play here is being sponsored by local women for the benefit of children of this community and any benefits derived will be contributed to the child hygiene fund of the P.T.A. Mrs. Rowe stated. Tickets may be procured at McLeister's, she added.

Widow of Man Gored By Bull Given $5,000

A verdict awarding $5,000 damages to Mrs. Minnie Hapke of Crystal Lake, administratrix of the estate of her husband, George Hapke, against Ward H. Huston of Evanston was returned by a circuit court jury at Woodstock Saturday.

The case, one of the first of its kind to be tried in this vicinity, and one of considerable interest to farm owners, resulted from an accident on September 20, 1936 in which Hapke, tenant on the farm belonging to Huston, was fatally injured when gored by a bull owned by Huston.

Although the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, Judge William L. Pierce has yet to rule on two motions which, under the new practice act, may set aside the decision.

The case hinged entirely on the law in connection with a share lease given by Huston to Hapke. Attorney V. E. Lunsley, attorney for the plaintiff, charged that Huston was liable for the damages incurred by the attack while Attorney David R. Joslyn held that Huston was not liable under the owner-tenant equal share lease.

Hapke died of injuries received when he was unfastened the bull from its stall and turned him loose in the barnyard. As he was closing the door to the barn, the bull charged him. Testimony was introduced at the trial to show the bull was of a vicious nature.

Huston is owner of the farm and dairy herd while Hapke furnished the machinery and horses and operated the farm on a 50-50 share basis. Farm owner interest centered around the hearing concerning the liability under similar contracts.

File $3000 Damage Suit in Auto Case

Suit for $3,000 damages for injuries claimed to have resulted from an automobile accident November 18 on route 63 between Dundee and Barrington has been filed in Cook county circuit court by Richard Herbig and Lorraine Taylor against the Curtis Publishing Co. and Leonard Wichman.

According to the complaint it is alleged that the Curtis car driven by Wichman collided with Herbig's machine, injuring both occupants. Herbig asks $1,000 and Lorraine Taylor $2,000.

Cast Selected for Dramatic Club Play

Selection of a cast for the Dramatic club play which is to be presented at Barrington high school March 24 and 25 was completed this week after three nights of tryouts. Miss Georgina White of the faculty is directing the production.

The play chosen for this year is a murder mystery, "The Call of the Banshee."

The cast will be as follows: Peter Adair—Jack Grueling; Hazel Orpen, his adopted niece—Dolores Eck; Dr. Markowitz, his physician—Adolph Trier; Grimes, his housekeeper—Edith Olson; Tom Scott, his deaf servant—Don Jorgensen; Blanche Lamb, his colored servant—Charlotte Adams; Tibby Lamb, Blanche's mother—Dawn Landwehr; Dr. Neville Lacey, Peter's cousin—Kenneth Frye; Yum, his Indian servant—Leonard Capulli; Clem Durward, affiant to Hazel—Bill Saul; Joan Walters, Hazel's friend—Ma Ertter; Hilda, Joan's maid—Ester Bjornberg; Abner Heckschell, sheriff—Jack Shepard; Walter Payne, his deputy—Bob Schroeder; Linda Perkins—Frieda Kohnert.

Laverne Uteg, 26, a Former Resident, Ends Life Tuesday

Laverne Uteg, 26-year-old former resident of this community, shot and killed himself in a clothes closet at his home at 1818 Lomb, land avenue, Chicago, early Tuesday morning. The young man was born in Barrington Center on February 11, 1912, and received his early education in schools in this vicinity.

His widow, Annabelle Schutte Uteg, whom he married February 11, 1932, was unable to furnish any explanation for her husband's suicide when questioned by the police. She told police she was awakened about 3 o'clock in the morning by the sound of a shot and discovered her husband dead in the closet.

Uteg had been living in Chicago for the past three years. He was employed as a shirt cutter. As far as could be determined, he had been in good health and had no financial worries.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two children, Ellen, 5 years old, and John Max Uteg, 5 months old. He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Uteg of Dundee, two sisters, and one brother.

Hold Three McHenry County Youths for Armed Robbery Case

Perry LaHue, 19 years old, of Dundee, Donald Blanner, 14, and John Brooks, 18, both of Crystal Lake, are being held by Henry A. Nulle, McHenry county sheriff, on the charge of armed burglary of the Victor Hansen tavern near Crystal Lake last week.

Deputy Sheriff C. C. Miner reported that the Crystal Lake youths, who were apprehended over the week-end, had confessed to the crime. LaHue would not talk it was learned. The robbery was committed last Wednesday night.

He was reported by the others as the one who took $4.80 from the cash drawer while Brooks stood guard over Hansen with a revolver. Blanner was the lookout for the gang, Miner reported.

A chance remark made by one of the boys when he addressed the other by his correct first name was the clue leading to their arrest. Overalls were worn by the trio as a disguise when they entered the place.

Palatine Man Killed by Automobile While Walking on Road

Wilbur Taylor, 51 years old, was killed instantly while walking along Northwest highway west of Palatine when he was struck by a car driven by Louis Pankonin, also of Palatine, at 9:30 Thursday night. Mr. Pankonin is employed by Jewel Tea Co. in Barrington.

Mr. Taylor was returning from visiting a family in a subdivision when the accident occurred. He was taken to the Palatine Community hospital, Mr. Pankonin and some fellow workers, who were following him and witnessed the accident.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury following the presentation of testimony Friday morning.

Landis Award Assn. Seeks to Organize Building Men Here

Twelve contractors attended an organization meeting of the Landis Award Employers' association at the office of Martin Plate in Palatine Wednesday evening. Barrington was not represented at the meeting, but it is understood efforts will be made to have local contractors join the group.

The Landis Award association is a joint group of general building trades contractors who operate on a wage scale below that of organized labor unions. The organization meeting Wednesday night is interpreted as a move to compete with labor unions for recognition in this area. Only contractors belong and pay dues to the association, employees not being required to pay membership dues, it was stated.

Five Palatine contractors were reported to have signed with the Landis Award representative and others promised to join at a meeting scheduled for Saturday night in Palatine.

Mrs. W. Beckman Dies at South Bend

Funeral services were held at South Bend, Ind. Wednesday for Mrs. William Beckman, former resident of Barrington who died at Epworth Memorial hospital South Bend, early Monday morning. Death followed an illness of a month and a half.

Mrs. Beckman had been seriously ill a year ago and had undergone two operations for mastoid at that time. Following an improvement in her condition last summer, she visited friends in Barrington several times.

The Beckmans had made their home at 628 Grove avenue for five years—from 1931 to 1936. While here, Mrs. Beckman was an active member of the Barrington Women's club and the Altair society of the Baptist church. Painting needlework and entertaining were her hobbies.

She is survived by her husband, William Beckman, by daughter, Phyllis and three brothers, one in Portland and two in Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Gleason and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roglund of Barrington attended the service for Mrs. Beckman, held at the Forest Hill funeral home in South Bend with Rev. Archibald Holmes officiating. Interment took place at a South Bend mausoleum.

Radio Company Head Purchases 200 - Acre Farm Near Fox River

The sale of the L. E. Leverone 200-acre farm to Eugene Trace, vice president of Zenith Radio Co. was reported this week by Roy Hunsbarg, broker. Purchase was approximately $25,000, real estate stamps showed. The property is located at the west edge of the Barrington district near the Fox River.

According to reports, Mr. Trace plans to erect a residence in a 90-acre tract of virgin timber on the property. The remainder is under cultivation and equipped with farm buildings. In addition to the home, a lake will also be built on the property.

B. Bates' Parents Will Be Honored on Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bates, parents of B. H. Bates, local Railway Express agent, will be honored Sunday at a golden wedding celebration in the I.O.O.F. hall at Harvard, where they reside. The anniversary will be on March 1 but the celebration has been advanced two days so that members of the family can attend conveniently.

Mr. Bates, who is 73 years old, and Mrs. Bates, who is to celebrate her 72nd birthday March 2, will be presented with gold rings and will repeat the wedding vows at a short service.

They were married in Rochester, Minn., in 1888 and have lived in Harvard for the past 26 years. Mr. Bates first farmed for many years and then started in carpentry work. He and Mrs. Bates enjoy good health and are very active.

In addition to Mr. Bates in Barrington there are six sons and four daughters, three of the boys and three girls residing at Harvard. There are 18 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Start Removing Old Deep Rock Buildings

Work was started Wednesday to remove the old office and storage shed of the Deep Rock Oil Co. at the intersection of Main and Lakeshore streets. The buildings were purchased recently by William Klingenberg and they are being moved by an A. L. Schert moving crew to the McIntosh subdivision outside the north village limits. Mr. Klingenberg stated he would use them in his chicken raising business.

Following the completion of the new service station by Deep Rock Oil Co. it was decided to remove the old buildings that formerly were used by the firm.

Mr. Schert's crew also completed Wednesday the removal of 300 feet of track which was part of and adjacent to the old bridge trestle of the P. L. Z. & W. railroad in Lake Zurich. Several weeks ago the old passenger depot was removed by his crew.

Elect 1938 Officers of Lake Farm Bureau

Earl Kane of Mundelein was elected president of the Lake County Farm Bureau at the annual meeting of that organization in Grayslake Monday last year. Mr. Kane was secretary. The former president, Albert Stahl of Prairie View, will be vice president this year. Harry Matthews of McHenry, who served as vice president last year, was elected secretary.

L. A. Huebner of Mundelein was re-elected treasurer of the Lake County Farm Bureau. This will be the 25th year of service in that capacity for Huebner.
