Miss White Becomes Bride of T. Hayward at Wedding Saturday

BARRINGTON HILLS - The

BARRINGTON HILLS, — The country home of Seiden F. White, "Out of Bounds Hill," was never leveler than on Saturday aftermoon when Miss Withelmina White became the bride of Thomas Zander Hayward of Chleago. The marriage service was read in the large bay window of the living room where the decorations were white geraniums and branches of green lared.

In the dining room bowis of red geraniums graced the dining table which was covered with a sheer organdle cloth, and held beside the bowls of flowers, the beautifully decorated wedding cakes.

After the covernous redemining the control of the covernous and on the lovely white petunia bordered terrace at the rear of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayward left for a wedding trip of about a month and after that time will be at home at "Out of Bounds Hill."

A number of out-of-town guests were present, among them J. P. Bichel from Toronto, who few were present, among them J. P.
