Motorcycle Officer Has Narrow Escape When Hit With Shot

Arthur Miller, village motorcycle policeman, narrowly escaped a possible serious injury when he was struck beneath the left eye by an air rifle shot Tuesday evening.

Officer Miller was riding south on Hough street on his motorcycle early Tuesday evening when the accident occurred. Near the intersection of Liberty street he was hit below the eye, less than one inch from the eyeball. Stopping quickly, he found the pellet still clinging to the skin, which was not broken.

A search in the neighborhood failed to locate the person who fired the shot. E. W. Baude, chief of police, has issued a warning to children against careless use of guns in the village, and has requested parents to assist by teaching children to be careful.

Leaving for Boys State
