

Union Heads Again Take Skilled Labor From School Work

Four Men Removed Wednesday; 10 Ordered Off Last Week

Chicago labor union officials again this week visited Barrington and ordered members of their respective unions to leave the public school WPA project. This occurred Wednesday and three carpenters and one plasterer, all of whom are affiliated with Chicago unions, were told to go home. Exactly one week previous, on Wednesday, the same group of men heads visited the project and at that time removed 10 skilled workers—carpenters, plasterers and a painter.

Those removed last week did not return to the local job to work. However, a new group of skilled men were assigned here. This was done, Healy Thune, project supervisor, explained, due to the fact that a new work period had arrived. Skilled workers are only allowed approximately 47 hours a month of work because of their higher wage scale.

A new group was sent to the project this week and included in it were the three men possessing union cards. The other skilled laborers were allowed to remain at work.

Construction on the second floor has progressed sufficiently far so that skilled labor in a great quantity will not be used after the first two weeks. Plaster finishing remains in the hall and several other rooms. A woven wire screen was placed on the roof playground last week.

The action of union officials has been viewed from different angles by observers. Some feel that the unions would like to have all WPA labor taken from their organization; others state that the unions are seeking to have only skilled union labor used, and others are of the opinion that the unions are being used to gain high wage schedules.

Pool Opening Date Is Still Undecided

The opening date for the swimming pool in Northside park is still pending warm weather. H. H. Callina, president of the park board, stated Wednesday night. The pool personnel has been appointed and the place is in readiness with the exception of the pool proper, which has not been filled with water.

The guards this year have been appointed as follows: Claude Conn, captain; Arthur Castle, Clyde Church, Jane Marie Currant, examiner and instructor; Marjorie Muir and Helen Jura.

Five hundred nursery stock seedlings were planted in the park this week to furnish a perpetual supply for the eventual development of the other park property donated by Jewel Tea Co. last year. Twenty different varieties of trees and shrubs were planted and more will be added each year, it was learned.

Building Permits in May Total $10,225

Report Two Men Are Held in Connection With Depot Robbery

Identities Withheld by Police
Heads; Seeking Third
Member of Gang

Two men were reported taken in custody in Chicago this week and charged with the daylight robbery of the Barrington ticket office of the C. & N. W. railroad on January 3, in which C. H. Seymour, ticket agent, was slugged and $1690 in cash taken. Chicago police and the C. & N. W. railroad police were credited with the apprehension of the men.

Identity of the two was withheld pending further investigation and probable arrest of a third person. It was learned that the third individual's arrest was imminent and police officials refused to divulge the names of anyone until that action had been completed.

Finger prints left while looting the cash box and identification by Mr. Seymour who went to Chicago to view the suspects last Friday, brought about the charge, reports stated.

The two men sought for the crime completed the job with the cash and driving shortly after the 9:30 train left on the morning of January 3. One individual remained outside the ticket office while his companion went inside to gather up the money. Mr. Seymour was struck over the head when he was slow to do as instructed by the men.

They escaped in a fast car, got away from town on South street.

Furniture purchased from the Mrs. Orden Armour estate in Lake Forest is now on display at the Green Gables in Lake Zurich. B. J. Sumerlin, proprietor, purchased the articles recently. Many items from the former show place estate are on display.

Cuba Store, Operated by Kraus Family for 49 Years, Is Sold

Cuba store, a familiar landmark in Cuba township for the past 49 years, has been sold by its owner, Mrs. Anna Kraus, to Ernest Fritz and Arnt Iversen, who will continue to conduct the grocery business, and a tavern as well. The sale of the property was reported this week.

Conrad Kraus, deceased husband of Mrs. Kraus, built the building, which stands on North-west highway and Kelsey road, in 1889 and began a grocery business. He sold out to Charles Ledebur in 1891 but assumed control of the place again in 1892. Mr. Kraus died last year.

Cuba store had been the focal point of all activity in Cuba township in the early years, and was expanding as more settlers and farmers moved into the region. Its loaded shelves supplied the surrounding area with groceries, feed, coffee, salt and many other necessities.

Because Cuba station on the C. & N. W. railroad was a milk station, the store was the meeting place of farmers each morning. During the peak period when milk was shipped by train more than 400 cars were hauled daily. Old farmers today relate the many interesting events that occurred at

Butler Dies After Losing Legs When Run Over by Train

Theophil Bernard, Employed on
J. B. DeLany Estate,
Is Victim

Theophil Bernard, 40, employed as butler on the J. B. DeLany estate, Sutton road, died Wednesday afternoon in the Belmont hospital in Chicago of injuries received when he was run over by a Chicago & North Western railroad train early Wednesday morning.

The accident occurred at the Keeler avenue and Irving Park road station. He suffered the loss of both legs as well as many lacerations.

Bernard was run over by the train that leaves the Chicago terminal at 12:15 a. m. Little is known about the accident and police were unable to learn his identity until late Wednesday morning.

He had been in Chicago on his day off and it is believed he was enroute home when the accident occurred. Railroad employees were unable to determine whether he had been a passenger of the train or had attempted to board the train at that point.

One leg was completely severed and it was found necessary to amputate the other at the hospital, where he was removed by Chicago police. His condition was greatly weakened by the loss of blood and he never rallied. He remained in a state of unconsciousness and authorities were unable to learn his identity. Telephone numbers and a Barrington railroad ticket were used by the police to trace his residence.

An inquiry was to have been conducted in Chicago Thursday, today.

The deceased man had been in the employ of the DeLanys for the last seven months. He was a widower. According to Mr. DeLany, Bernard seemed in the best of health and spirits when he left for Chicago Tuesday morning.

Following the dinner and presentation, chairs were enjoyed by those present.

with his pin. He also received a leather brief case, given by employees of the local office. Lloyd Graham, chairman of the Athletic and Social activities committee of the Barrington and Crystal Lake area, was toastmaster.

Mr. Schreiber began working for the Public Service Co. at Bradford, Ill., and spent several years at Lacon and Chillicothe, Ill. He will complete 13 years service in Barrington next October.

Following the dinner and presentation, chairs were enjoyed by those present.

Complete Plans for Alumni Assn. Party

Plans were completed Tuesday night at a meeting of officers of the Barrington high school alumni association for the annual party honoring the graduating class of 1938.

The affair will be held again this year at Barrington Hills Country club on June 17. The association will be the guest of Sheldon P. White, president of Barrington Hills Country club.

Reservations for the party and dance will be handled by alumni officers, who will be assisted by groups of members. Music for the dancing will be furnished by Ted Arthur's orchestra.

Following is the list of officers: Norman Reese, president; Harry Wiedenbeck, vice president; Myron Kuhlman, treasurer; Delbert Nagata, assistant treasurer; Miss Janice Grabenhorst, secretary; Miss Ruth Bjornberg, assistant secretary.

Mr. Kuhlman and Mr. Wiedenbeck are in charge of the music and Mr. Reese and Miss Grabenhorst are in charge of the arrangements and buffet supply.

Religious Education Groups Plan Program

The churches in religious education of the Barrington public school will hold a program Friday, June 3, at the Salem church, 2:30 p. m. At that time they will exhibit their work.

There will also be a presentation of certificates and awards. Miss Cecil Bowman, religious education class instructor, has invited the public to attend the program.

Community Dinner Program Completed

The program for the Barrington post of the American Legion community dinner on June 2 at the school auditorium has been completed, according to M. H. Schreiber, general chairman. Rep. Elmer Schuckenberg will deliver the principal address.

Featured on the entertainment will be Dolores Fox, who entertained the crowds at the Lions club Fall Festival last October with her singing and dancing. Her good reception at that time has prompted the officials to bring her back, it was learned. Also featured on the program will be Chick Schuetts's Flashes from Chicago. This is a musical trio, and instrumental and vocal numbers will be given.

Prominent persons who are expected to attend the dinner are: John Riets of Chicago, district governor of the Lions club; State Senator Ray Padgett; of Round Lake, and Richard Brown, republican nominee for United States senator.
