It will have been nearly two years since these giamorous dancers en-tertained Chicagoans and visitors to the Palmer House with the magic of their artistry and their beauty. On May 30, 1935, Velox and Yolanda began their second appearance in the Empire room, an engagement which ran for 35 consecutive weeks and established an attendance record. In 1936 they appeared for a limited five-they appeared for a limited five-tion picture. Now they return with a dosen newly created routines and with Volanda's world famous wardrobe lacreased by more than 40 new gowns that Chicago has not as yet seen.

Heights Officials Ordered to Hearing

Village President Flentie and several other Arlington Heights village officials were scheduled to come up for a hearing today, Thursday, in Chicago in connec-tion with charges arising from the operation of slot machines in that community.

The state's attorney's office bar The state's attorney's office had ordered the men to appear before the hearing that was called to determine any liability on charges of using money from the gaming machine operators. Mr. Flentie, it was reported, had admitted that tunds from that source had been used to purchase village equipment.
