Window Boxes at Scout Cabin Gift

Four attractive window boxes, filled with pink petunias, ageratums and ivy, now beautify the scout cabin. They were placed at the cabin last week as a gift from the Village Garden citub. Mrs. Frank Kirchman, chairman of the club's civics committee, was in charge of arrangements. The boxes were made by pupils in the building trades classes at the public school, under the direction of Mr. Roselle, After constructing the boxes, the boys painted them green.
