names of the various colleges at which they are studying. Lions ladies have contributed an interesting innovation: a display of handwork—quilts, sweaters, knitted suits, dresses, etc., crocheted and knitted lace, embroidered luncheon and dolly sets, bedspreads, etc. Art work is to be shown one evening with paintings by local artists. Cooking has not been forgotten—one grand prize of a baked dish or dessert delicacy being offered each evening.

Commercial exhibits vary from room arrangements to floral displays. Three dogs—a St. Bernard, a bull terrier and a puppy—have attracted considerable attention. A little bride and groom also fascinated the crowds at the opening night.

Pictures by the Camera club evidence the almost professional ability of local amateurs who have made photography their hobby. Emil Wolf has contributed an unusual card made in Italy. It is intricately carved and painted in bright, peasant colors.

J. E. MacMurray, Former Resident, Married Tuesday

James E. MacMurray, former resident of Barrington, and Mrs. Kathryn Titus Smith, president of Cornell (Iowa) College Alumni association, were married at the bride's residence in South Pasadena, Calif., Tuesday.

Mr. MacMurray, former Illinois state senator, head of a steel company and retired banker, formerly owned the estate now occupied by G. F. Rutledge, Oakbrae. He is also a benefactor of MacMurray college in Jacksonville, Ill. His contributions have amounted to nearly $2,000,000.

Mr. MacMurray's first wife was found dead in a half-filled bathtub in her South Pasadena home on November 17, 1937. She was 70 years old.

Committees Plan for Church Supper Oct. 26

Committee chairmen are planning for the annual supper for St. Paul Evangelical church to be held in the church parlors October 26. Members of the church are assisting in the congregation-wide event. Proceeds of the dinner will be used in the building fund. It was learned.

Those in charge of various committees are as follows: Mrs. Dale Magill and Mrs. John Mollenkamp, kitchen; Mrs. Herman Stewart and Mrs. Arthur Steward, dining room; Mrs. H. R. Brintinger, reservations.
