

Star Ginger Rogers and Fairbanks Jr. in Week-End Bill

"Fast Company," Comedy Hit, Showing Friday and Saturday

Frank Morgan's plea for a romantic role has been answered. In "Fast Company," this evening at the Catlow theatre, showing, he plays the part of Pauline, a powerful character role which not only gives him an opportunity for comedy and drama but makes him a central figure in a tender and unusual love story.

Romance and adventure are combined with hilarious results in "Fast Company," new mystery drama coming to the Catlow Friday and Saturday. Melvin Douglas, Florence Rice, Claire Dodd, Sheppard Stradwick, Louis Calhern, Nat Pendleton and Douglas Dumbrille are featured in the cast of capable performers.

"Fast Company" is an unusual background for a mystery drama revealing the activities of racketeers who steal and duplicate rare volumes that are sold for enormous prices.

Exhibiting a cross-section of life never before presented on the screen, "Having a Wonderful Time," co-starring Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks Jr., depicts in interesting fashion all the heterogeneous group that collects at summer vacation camps with the one determined aim of enjoying a good time.

In addition to that of two stars, more than 50 speaking roles personify all types of vacationists who hurry to the mountains annually for a brief release. "Having a Wonderful Time" comes here Sunday and Monday.

Stuart Erwin probably is going to be a logical contender for Maxie Rosenbloom's pugilistic title one of these days.

Maxie, known throughout the boxing world for his penchant for striking his opponents with his open hand, had won the sobriquet, "Slapstick Maxie."

And Erwin, heading the featured cast in "Passport Husband," at the Catlow Tuesday, discovered that he is possessor of a rare technique.

Director James Tinsling was on the set putting Stu and Edward Brophy through a scene in which the sad-faced comedian knocks out "tough guy" Brophy and then revives the unconscious gangster by slapping him.

"Make him take it easy," moaned the raspy voiced Brophy.

"He didn't hurt you," replied Tinsling, "I saw him pull the punch."

"Who's talking about the punch?" roared Brophy. "It's the slapping."

Double featured with "Passport Husband" on Tuesday is the latest "Hopalong Cassidy" Paramount picture, "Bar 50 Justice," starring William Boyd, and featuring Russell Hayden, Georges Hayes and Pat O'Brien.

Wednesday and Thursday brings to the Catlow screen, "Till We Meet Again," with Warner Baxter, Peter Lorre and Marjorie Weaver.

person in the Catlow will have a "large as life, and twice as natural" view of each operation. There will be no "orchestra circle" at this entertainment, since the back row guests of The Review will have an equal chance to peer into the busy mixing bowl, watching the deft steps of measuring, creaming, sifting, and thorough mixing, not overlooking the final work of baking, roasting, French-frying, or freezing.

For this is no half-hearted demonstration. Each delicious dish will be completed and shown with such realism that there are sure to be hungry "oh's" and "ah's" from the audience. If any stray husbands get into the theatre, they are certain to ask, "When do we eat?"

Keeping up-to-the-minute on fresh discoveries to ease the home manager's burdens, is one of the jobs of the household specialists who supervised the demonstrations in this profitable cooking school. Because they have devoted years of training and study to home problems, these capable experts know how to help other housekeepers run their homes more smoothly, interestingly and economically. Under the glow of their enthusiasm and creative skill, a well-cooked meal becomes elevated from "just a job" to an artistic achievement, requiring skill and imagination.

Not only does this picture show new dishes, styles, and interesting ways to serve everyday meals and party feasts, but it demonstrates how to make intelligent use of the ingenious mechanical servants that take the guess work out of house work.

What about recipes? Naturally every guest of The Review will want to test these tantalizing recipes for menu monotony. Free recipe sheets will be distributed daily. And other things will be given away—valuable gifts that will find long and useful life in many a home.

Does your house run you? If so, why not accept the The Review's invitation to join the neighborly cooking school party, starting September 22 in the Catlow theatre.

"Star in My Kitchen" is entertaining as well as instructive. It has romance, humor, glamour—it will hold your interest every minute you are in the audience, and you will see many demonstrations of new recipes that have been prepared especially for this picture by several of America's foremost home economists. There will be daily gifts for some fortunate women and, of course, free recipes for everyone.

The Sale Season Is at Hand

The sale season is at hand! I have a number of sales already listed for fall selling. If you desire my services, call Woodstock 478 (reverse change) and I will gladly come and see you. My 35 years of experience will be of much help to you, as I am in touch with more buyers than any auctioneer in McHenry County.

Three days I sell in the big sale markets in Wisconsin and I meet all the buyers from far and near who want to buy farm personal property of all kinds, including horses and cattle.

If you desire arrangements can be made for clerk and financing at most reasonable rates.
