.A CONCERTED CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Civic cooperation is the fundamental requisite to im proved Christmas spirit in Barrington. With close cooper-ation among all clubs, lodges, civic, traternal and social groups and business men, it will be possible to have a Christmas here in Barrington long to be remembered. That Barrington's Christmas spirit needs reviving has been agreed most unanimously. To what degree it can be reyived depends wholly on the support and effort made during the approaching season.

A plan has been advanced whereby programs and entertainment, as well as a concerted decoration program in the business district, can be made to serve as an outward expres-A number of individuals and groups have been approach and their cooperation and assistance requested. The re-sponse has been gratifying. Hopes are high that the coming Christmas may be one that reflects an abundant feeling of brotherly love and community spirit. To this end, the pro-gram needs assistance from all.

When asked to give your aid and effort to the develop-of a Christmas program keep in mind that the tis spent in preparation is the first and biggest indication of the spirit which the program hopes to create.
