Beyond the Page with Percival Everett Thursday, March 19, 7 PM

Industrious, irreverent, humble—though he may deny the accusation—Percival Everett, like his fiction, defies categorization. His most recent novel, James, earned both the Pulitzer Prize for fiction and the National Book Award, and his 2001 novel Erasure inspired the film American Fiction, which received the Academy Award for Best Adapted Screenplay in 2024. Some of his other titles were finalists for the Booker Prize, the PEN/Faulkner Award for Fiction, and the Pulitzer Prize. Despite these accomplishments, he remains devoted to reviewing his own work critically, and his writing process involves intensive research and revision. Tune in to get a glimpse beyond the page. This event is intended for adults. Virtual. Register.

These events are made possible by Illinois Libraries Present (ILP), a statewide collaboration among public libraries offering premier events. ILP is funded in part by a grant awarded by the Illinois State Library, a department of the Office of Secretary of State, using funds provided by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).

ILP is committed to inclusion and accessibility. American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation and Closed Captioning are provided for all events by default—no special request needed. If accommodations are needed, please contact Adultservices@balibrary.org.
